Policy

1. Completion within expected duration

- International students must complete their studies within the expected duration specified on their Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE). The duration of the course as specified on the student's CoE will never exceed that registered on the CRICOS register.
- Lyons college monitors student progress to ensure that students to complete their studies within the expected duration specified on their Confirmation of Enrolment.

2. Course progress requirements

- Course progress requirements are defined in relation to study periods and may include (but is not limited to), any combination of the following.
 - Satisfactory completion of certain assessment tasks or a certain number of assessment tasks
 - Achieving competency for certain units of competency or a certain number of units of competency
 - Requirements to attend a certain number and/or percentage of classes or other training activities such as work-based training shifts.
- Requirements are designed to uphold the academic integrity of the registered course and meet requirements of the Training Products, with consideration to the length of the study period and number of units and assessment requirements of the course.
- Students are advised of course progress requirements in pre enrolment information and in their course orientation.
- Students who do not meet course progress or attendance requirements are at risk of having their visas cancelled.
- Where requirements are not met, Lyons college course progress and attendance monitoring procedures will be followed.
- Lyons college uses a range of methods to monitor course progress including review of assessment tasks, participation in tuition activities and other measures of academic progress as defined in the procedures.
- All records of course progress are kept on file.
- Students must also ensure that they abide by academic conduct requirements in order to ensure that they can complete their course in the expected duration.

3. Intervention Strategy

- Lyons college ensures that it identifies, notifies and assist students where there is evidence that the student is at risk of not meeting course progress requirements.
- For students at risk of not meeting course progress requirements, or Individual intervention plan will be developed based on the appropriate intervention strategy identified.
- An intervention plan will include an interview with the VET manager may include one or more of the following strategies:
 - Advising students on the suitability of the course in which they are enrolled and possible alternatives;
 - Advising students of opportunities for reassessment; and
 - Advising students of assistance that Lyons college can provide such as:
 - receiving English language support;
 - reviewing learning materials with the student and providing information to students and in a context that they can understand;
 - providing extra time to complete tasks;
 - providing access to supplementary or modified materials
 - providing supplementary exercises to assist understanding
 - attending academic skills programs;
 - attending tutorial or study groups;
 - receiving individual case management;
 - attending counselling;
 - receiving assistance with personal issues which are influencing progress;
 - receiving mentoring;
 - referral to external organizations where Lyons college is unable to address the identified learning or academic issues:
 - being placed in a suitable alternative subject within a course or a suitable alternative course; or
 - a combination of the above and a reduction in course load.

4. Extension to an expected course duration

- Extensions to the course duration specified on the CoE are only allowed where:
 - Compassionate or compelling circumstances apply, and demonstrable evidence is provided, which may include but is not limited to:
 - serious illness or injury, where a medical certificate states that the student was unable to attend classes;

- bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents;
 - major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country requiring emergency travel and this has impacted on the student's studies; ^[LTL]_[SEP:SEP]
 - a traumatic experience which has impacted on the student and which could include involvement in, or witnessing of a serious accident; and witnessing or being the victim of a serious crime. These cases should be supported by police or psychologists' reports); or
 - where Lyons college is unable to offer a pre-requisite unit.
 - where the student is unable to begin studying on the course commencement date due to delay in receiving a student visa.
- Where a student is complying with an intervention strategy implemented for students identified at risk of not making satisfactory course progress or meeting attendance requirements, or
 - An approved deferral or suspension of studies has been granted in accordance with Lyons college Deferral, Suspension and Cancellation Policy and Procedure.
- When the student can only account for the variation/s by extending his or her expected duration of study, this will be reported to the Department of Education and Training (DET) via PRISMS.
 - All variations in the student's study load, including the reasons for the variation will be recorded on the student's file.
 - Where the duration of the student's enrolment is extended, Lyons college will advise the student to contact the Department of home affairs (DHA) to seek advice on any potential impacts on their visa, including the need to obtain a new visa.

5. Reporting students

- Where a student has demonstrated unsatisfactory course progress in a study period or has failed to meet attendance requirements despite interventions implemented, Lyons college will be required to report the student to Department via PRISMS and the student will receive a written notice informing them of the intention to report for non-satisfactory course progress or attendance and the reasons for the intention to report.
- Students have the rights to appeal against this decision as per Lyons College Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure. If the student chooses to access this process, the student will not be reported until this process is complete.
- Lyons college will only report unsatisfactory course progress or unsatisfactory course attendance in PRISMS if:
 - the internal and external complaints processes have been completed and the decision or recommendation supports the registered provider; or

- the overseas student has chosen not to access the internal complaints and appeals process within the 20 working day period; or
 - the student has chosen not to access the external complaints and appeals process: or
 - the overseas student withdraws from the internal or external appeals processes by notifying the registered provider in writing.
- All records will be kept on the student's file including warning letters and the notice of intention to report.

6. Publication

- This policy and procedure will be published in the Student Handbook and on Lyons college website to ensure that course progress requirements are clearly communicated to students before they commence their course. Course progress requirements will also be communicated to students in the pre enrolment information and at their orientation.
